

An aging pipeline called Line 5 transports up to 23 million gallons of oil and natural gas liquids each day along the bottom of Straits of Mackinac, presenting a risk to the Great Lakes.

Michigan voters want Line 5 shut down now.

A NEW EPIC-MRA POLL OF LIKELY MICHIGAN VOTERS SHOWS:

87% ARE CONCERNED about a Line 5 oil spill in the Straits of Mackinac.

A majority want Line 5 shut down—by greater than a 2-1 MARGIN OVER THOSE WHO DON'T.

In northern Michigan, where a Line 5 oil spill would impact Michigan voters the most, 64% WANT IT SHUT DOWN, compared to only 20% who would keep it open.
